Help Through Music and Science at The Laurels of Coldwater

Music is a powerful force for people of all ages. Memory Care Unit Program Director Nancy Ulrich is a lover of music and finds joy in sharing her love with Guests at The Laurels of Coldwater. She knows that music carries health benefits, as well.

Associates James Williams and Nancy Ulrich "Groove to the Music" with Guest Glen O'Dell.

Research shows that music stimulates parts of the brain. Studies have demonstrated that music enhances the memory of patients with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia. One study, conducted at UC Irvine, showed that Alzheimer's patients' scores on memory tests improved when they listened to classical music.

Nancy Ulrich graduated from Olivet College with a Bachelor's in Psychology in December 2016. She worked in the Activities Department prior to joining The Laurels of Coldwater in February as the Memory Care Unit Program Director. She is excited to be able to incorporate more music into the programming in the Memory Care Unit.

Nancy recently started an activity called "Grooving to the Music" where she and James Williams, Maintenance Assistant and fellow music lover, play their guitars and sing with Guests. Nancy says, "It's really fun to see our Guests be able to sing along to songs from their past. It's amazing how those with short-term memory loss can sing every line to a song from decades ago!"

Words of Thanks

Often, Laurel Health Care Associates go above and beyond the call of duty, reaching out in the communities they serve and demonstrating The Laurel Way of Caring. Here are a few of the letters or excerpts of letters of appreciation we have received commending these Associates for their extra efforts.

The Laurels of Fulton

Where do you begin to thank the ones who took care of my mother for 10 years? From the kitchen crew, laundry, maintenance, activities, nurses, and office staff, you all went above and beyond and made me feel good about having Mom in a "nursing home." There were so many changes over the years and we all weathered them together. You all always had Mom's best interest at heart. I keep thinking about all the times she said, "I 'love' my nurses and friends." These were words from her heart and made mine happy.

I feel like I should be rushing there to see her still. The love those last few days, and tenderness, will stay in my heart forever! If only we could all be as thankful as Mom, this world would be awesome!

Sandy & Family

The Laurels of Chatbam

Joan Hayes, I want to thank you for being so good to me. You are one of the best aids here and you are very nice to me. You always find time to help me when I need it. Thank you,

Mary Foxx

To All The Nurses: Thank you for all you do! I never have to worry about getting my medicine. What I love most about you all is how you all joke with me! Thank you for making my experience here a great one!

Joyce Benson

The Laurels of Norworth

To Kristine, Bryan, Angela, Nursing Staff, Aides, Activities Staff and all others who made Mom's (Margaret Gutliph) stay at Norworth comfortable. She loved you all, and it's proven by some of the final words she spoke, "Nurses, love them all—got irritated with them, didn't mean to—did their best—all good." To Mom, nurses and aides were considered the same. My brother and I are so very grateful for the love and support you showed Mom in so many ways. Your compassionate and caring ways were so evident throughout her stay with you and especially in her final days. We would be remiss if we didn't also thank you for the support and concern that you showed us as well. We are forever grateful to all of you.

Janet Cunningham & Dick Gutliph

The Laurels of Coldwater

The Laurels of Coldwater Volunteer, Phyllis Briggs, found herself in need of Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation after suffering from a stroke earlier this spring. She chose to recover and regain her strength at The Laurels of Coldwater and cannot say enough good things about her stay!

"Everyone is so helpful and kind. I noticed all the patients are good to each other, cheer each other on, and it's one big happy family!" Phyllis raved about her fine dining experience at The Laurels of Coldwater, "the food is very good, they have a nice variety of choices, and it's hot!" Phyllis also liked that there were a lot of activities to choose from and that "Therapy always worked around my schedule so I could partake in activities."

Now that Phyllis has recovered, she's looking forward to returning home and getting back to volunteering at The Laurels of Coldwater and The Community Health Center of Branch County.

Reflections

The Laurels of Norworth
 Worthington Girl Scout Troop #1514 recently visited The Laurels of Norworth. With assistance from many Guests, the girls planted wildflowers and a vegetable garden. Troop leaders and Activity Director Andy Brown organized the intergenerational activity to help fulfill a service requirement for the girls and to bring some joy and color to the Guests. At the end of the planting, the Girl Scouts invited the Guests to join them for a song and participate in the Merit Badge awards.

The Laurels of New London
 The artistic spirit dawned upon The Laurels of New London as Guests participated in a Busho Watercolor Workshop.

The Laurels of Coldwater
 The Laurels of Coldwater hosted a wedding for one of their Guests recently. John and his bride, Susan, had been together for several years and never had the money for a wedding. The Laurels of Coldwater took care of all of the details, including finding a pastor to donate his time, a bouquet for the bride, and John's favorite pie, lemon meringue, to celebrate their special day. It was a dream come true!

The Laurels of Hudsonville
 The leadership team at The Laurels of Hudsonville gathered for a Great Escape in March. In this activity, teams are locked in a room and must work together to solve puzzles and mysteries to get out of the room in one hour. One team made it out with ten seconds to spare!

The Laurels of Fulton
 While reading their Laurel Legacies to find a Legacy Leader for the month, the leadership team at The Laurels of Fulton came across two extra-special Legacies submitted by Guests. They decided to honor the Associates during their in-service day with small baskets of goodies. They read each Legacy aloud to the Associates and Guests.

Maplewood of Mt. Pleasant

Maplewood of Mt. Pleasant participates in a reading program through their local library. Children come and spend an hour reading to Maplewood Guests. Participating students get their name put into a drawing for a new bicycle donated by the Barberi Law Firm. This program is a great intergenerational activity that is enjoyed by all!

The Laurels of Bedford
 On July 20th, The Laurels of Bedford enjoyed Laurel Day with sunshine, smiles, and games!

The Laurels of Willow Creek
 Business Office Manager Sandra Massey's painting brought a wall to life at the end of The Laurels of Willow Creek's East Wing. Sandra also used her artistic talents to conduct a scrapbooking demo for Guests.

The Laurels of Mt. Pleasant

Take me out to the ball game! Guests enjoyed a trip to see the Great Lakes Loons, the minor league team based in Midland, Michigan.

The Laurels of University Park

The garden at The Laurels of University Park is a hit with Guests and Associates alike! Guest Shirley Thornhill loves to water the plants, while Guest Thelma Nelson couldn't wait to get her hands on the first tomato from the garden. She waited for days for it to turn red and said, "If it turns up missing, I stole it!"

The Laurels of Sandy Creek

Laurel Day at The Laurels of Sandy Creek was a great opportunity to show appreciation to Associates and their families. The theme this year was "Luau" and included games, prizes, great food, and more.

The Laurels of GreenTree Ridge, Summit Ridge and Hendersonville

The Western North Carolina Laurel Health Care facilities came together to compete in the community's first annual Dragon Boat Race in June. Our groups sported their best rock-n-roll gear while rowing against 17 other seasoned teams. Although they did not win first place, team "Wok and Row" did take home the award for Best Dressed Drummer. The Laurels were definitely the fan favorite!

The Laurels of Huber Heights

As part of their Laurel Day festivities, Associates enjoyed a fun-filled game of "Scoop It," where they had to scoop up ping-pong balls with a spoon in their mouths. Belly laughs were had by all!

The Laurels of Hillsboro

American muscle was present at The Laurels of Hillsboro's car show during National Nursing Home Week.

The Laurels of Steubenville

Guests at The Laurels of Steubenville recently requested a cornhole tournament. The Men's Group, with the assistance of Activity Director Rose Moodie, decided to construct and paint the cornhole boards themselves. The bags were stuffed and sewn by the Women's Group. Both groups enjoy playing the game.

The Laurels of Massillon

The Massillon Ronettes entertained Associates and Guests, bringing big hits from the '60s . . . and big hair!

On July 27, Maplewood of Marshall held a grand celebration to commemorate its twenty-year anniversary. Good food and refreshments brought Guests, Associates, and community members together to celebrate the landmark achievement.
